Participants in this game of skill accept that CBSi may name the winners in public. The CNET/sponsor (Dell) team will decide which entrants will win based off their answer to this game of skill: In 500 characters or less, tell us about YOUR ENTRY, followed by the opportunity to submit additional material via text, photo or video. Example supplementary materials to attach:
  - a. Food: what's been your at home winning recipe that's got you through the past few months? Maybe it was finding some gems at the back of the pantry, or a quick and easy meal that you've conjured up, or maybe you've tested an old family recipe?
  - b. Photography: one thing we've had more of during this period is, time. We've also learned that creativity can come from anywhere. We want to see if you've caught any amazing sunsets, wildfire or anything you might normally have missed.
  - c. Fitness: staying fit over the past few months has been challenging, especially with gyms being closed. How have you been creative in your home and what interesting workouts have you been doing? Have those 1 kg sugar packets been put to the test?
  - d. Fashion: what's been your stay-at-home winning outfit that's got you through this period? Have you stayed in your comfys? Have you gone half and half, or have you stayed in your normal work attire? We want to know!
  - e. Music: a true art form. It links to our emotions, tells a story, pulls on the heart strings. Are you able to showcase a song, verse, chorus, tune or riff you've put together from home? Maybe you've used some odd utensils to drum up the perfect beat.
